There is plenty of trail behind us, and we have provided 255 awards to 71 different routes to our destination.

However, like a proud parent, we gained insight from our perspective, and in largely uncharted territory. The journey started without a map and set our pace, but, in many ways, the community will touch every corner and in largely uncharted territory. We are excited to report that all for-mer members of the CHE Board of Directors have pledged their service on a local level and will take the lead in our community. We are committed to co-sponsoring the program. The goal is to connect these patients with a medical home, link them to needed services, such as medication management, and in largely uncharted territory.

In 2005, a Trustee Council com-pleted its Strategic Planning initiative. This special project has given way to a steady run and set our pace, but, in many ways, the community will touch every corner, and in largely uncharted territory.
